Sometimes the place you're trying to run from is exactly where your heart needs to be…

Bailey Hart has never felt like she measures up to her cousins at Heart Fire Ranch. It doesn't help that her rocker attitude has made her a black sheep in her small town. So when her band gets their big break in Los Angeles, "Wild Hart" can't run fast enough…If only there weren't so many reasons to stay.

After a harrowing stint in the Oakland Police Department, sheriff's deputy Chase McKee has returned home a hero, and yet he feels anything but. And when he finds out Bailey might be leaving for good, the feelings he's always harbored for his best friend's cousin just won't stay hidden. He knows she wants to get the heck out of Dodge, but he's hoping to show her where she really belongs—with him.

Will this Wild Hart turn her back on love, or will she realize her heart really belongs closer to home?
