Character Champions: Conquering the Extremes: Coaching and Mentoring Tools for Developing and Increasing Psychological Wealth for Success (Volume 1) Diana Chavez Ketterman PH.D., Lucille M. Aiken, Cindy Yan Fu

Character Champions: Conquering the Extremes, co-authored by Dr. Diana Chavez Ketterman, Lucille Aiken, and Cindy Yan Fu, achieve what few experienced, academic educators and leadership consultants do-they transform learning into an easily accessible and fun, poetic story followed by a phenomenal tutorial for parents, educators, psychologists, social workers, and counselors. Using engaging activities and innovative lesson plans, this colorful adventure provides drama, rewards, and personal growth to form a special bond between those who share the story's understanding. The poem's strength-based insights unveil useful methods to confront challenging pressures in today's society. This landmark guide promotes character development using characteristics described by Dr. David Keirsey temperaments and Don Lowry's True Colors. Written in rhyme, this lively metaphor reveals important, practical tools to deliver champion attitudes and actions and to gain Psychological Wealth. This extensive volume is really a collection of 6 books in one. Part 1 is the story with comprehension questions and a glossary of key terms. Part 2 is interactive activities to reinforce the lessons of the story. Part 3 is a set of CC Tools to help readers think and act like Character Champions. Part 4 is written for parents to learn CC parenting methods for success. Part 5 is a set of lesson plans for CC Teaching. Part 6 is a Reader's Theater version of the story so it can be presented as a play. An audio version of the story with CC songs for each story chapter will be available soon.
