Christ in a Choppie Box: Sermons from North East England Michael Sadgrove

"Michael's sermons are both beautiful and inspiring. They draw the reader face to face with God in surprising ways, always feeding the spiritual appetite-yet leaving me thirsty for more of what we have just tasted. They are beautifully crafted, and admirably concise. The use of English is impeccable and the scholarship profound. The eclectic references to art and literature demonstrate an aesthetic talent and theological versatility that is exceptional."
~ from the Foreword by Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury

Michael Sadgrove was Dean at Durham Cathedral between 2003 and 2015. During that time he preached many well-crafted sermons on a wide variety of topics, from the Iraq invasions to "digital lambs". This volume contains an edited collection of some of his finest and most thought-provoking sermons from his time in Durham.
