Faith Crisis: What Faith Is and Why It Doesn't Always Do What you Want Ron Dunn

Many well-meaning Christians confuse the key of faith with counterfeit keys, keys that bear a remarkable similarity to faith but are actually look-alike replicas. And when these bogus keys fail to open the doors of God's promises, some conclude that they are not of the "chosen few" and abandon any hope of living the life of faith.

But real faith never fails to open the door; it always achieves its goal. The question then becomes, "What is true faith? And how do I tell the difference between the truth and counterfeits?"

Faith Crisis helps you study the real thing, to get to know it so well, so thoroughly, that they will be saved from deception and be able to master the art of living by faith.
