Pensées (French Edition)

Blaise Pascal

Pensées (French Edition) Blaise Pascal
Ce livre un essai publié à titre posthume de Blaise Pascal, issue de plusieurs papiers retrouvés et rassemblés après sa mort. Le thème principal de cette œuvre est une apologétique c'est-à-dire la défense de la religion chrétienne contre les sceptiques et les libres-penseurs. Le projet apologétique de Pascal démontre que l'homme, dans son orgueil et son amas de concupiscence, ne peut trouver la paix intérieure et le véritable bonheur qu'en Dieu. Selon lui, c'est la relation brisée entre l'Homme et son Créateur qui produit chez l'humain l'insatisfaction constante de la vie qu'il mène, et le désir d'oublier, par le divertissement, qu'il est mortel et a besoin de la grâce de Dieu. Pascal, qui fut également l'un des plus grands génies scientifiques de l'Histoire, soutient que l'Homme est à la fois misère et grandeur, rien et tout, limité bien qu'il aspire à l'infini. Sa capacité de penser, son désir de l'illimité et sa quête insatiable de bonheur sont la trace de Dieu dans son esprit qu'il a été créé pour le connaître et l'aimer.
