All proceeds from the sale of the book up to the 3oth November 2013 will be donated to Prostate Cancer UK. For Laurence and Clarisse falling in love was unknown to them until their chance meeting in Paris on 28th March 1968, which changed the lives of their family, friends, and not least themselves. Laurence instantly felt a passion for and total commitment to Clarisse. She knew Laurence would be the love of her life, but at first couldn't accept the commitment their love demanded. Clarisse, seduced by the opportunities and fame modelling and acting could give her paid little heed to her Mother, Dominique's advice. "A successful career and contented life depends on the man you chose as your life partner." Dominique was sure it was Laurence. At thirty-five, Clarisse had to face up to the fact that her personal life was unfulfilled and she had wasted the last eleven years. The sacrifice of others, Mother Nature, and her sister, Isabelle who also loved Laurence, were the only hope, if any, Clarisse had of reversing a decision which had destroyed her relationship with Laurence.
