The Bow-Wow Secrets: How Dogs Keep Their Life Simple and Men Don't William Cottringer
The book reveals how a Labarador is never trying to be like an Alsatian and an Alsatian is never trying to be like a Pomeranian. Dogs stick to their breeds and are never trying to be like somebody else. Men do the reverse and end up complicating their lives. It further asserts that life is a treasure hunt and we are all born with a tiny piece of the treasure map. Trouble starts when we think our piece of the treasure map is bigger and better than what others have. 'The Bow-Wow Secrets' reveals an abundance of personal, professional and spiritual wisdom to help us find success and happiness in our lives. This refreshingly fresh and profound book sprinkled with wit and humour teaches us how to live right, be happy and successful and share our piece of the treasure map with others so that we can all enjoy and complete this treasure hunt together.
