Baptised by Fire (Hodder Christian paperbacks) Jack Hywel-Davies
Smith Wigglesworth was an uneducated, straight-talking Yorkshire lad, who never fully mastered the art of reading and writing. One day, in a small Methodist chapel, he heard God's call and immediately began the work of challenging all those he met to 'only believe'. In the subsequent fifty years, he was to become a figurehead for the growing Pentecostal Movement, leading missions all over the world. In "Baptised by Fire", Jack Hywel-Davies tells the striking story of this passionate man of God whose unquestioning faith and powerful ministry are a source of inspiration even today.
