When Fate Isn't Enough (When Fates Collide) Isabelle Richards
Can a romance that was written in the stars survive real life? Lily Clark and Gavin Edwards met when their lives collided in a crazy twist of fate. Their relationship started amidst chaos, fraught with danger, passion, and love. Building a life together will take more than destiny, especially when ghosts from their pasts try to tear them apart. Needing a fresh start, Lily decides to escape her life in Washington, DC, and join Gavin in London. Her trust and faith, which have never come easily, will be put to the test now that she and Gavin are living under the same roof. To make matters worse, trouble finds Lily wherever she goes. She thought she'd rid herself of her late husband's demons, but she soon learns that when you make a deal with the devil, he often comes back to up the ante. Can she let Gavin in, or will she continue to fight her battles alone? Find out what happens When Fate Isn't Enough.
