Waiting For You Catherine Miller

'An emotional debut written straight from the heart' – Julie Cohen, author of Dear Thing

Waiting for You is an emotional and gripping debut novel you won't be able to put down…

You'd never guess that Fliss Chapron doesn't have it all

All Fliss wants is to see two blue lines telling her she is pregnant with her much longed for second baby. But as the negative tests stack up, dreams of completing her perfect family feel more hopeless every day.

After years of disappointment, Fliss's husband Ben is spending more time at the office than in their marital bed, and Fliss finds herself wondering who could be responsible for their inability to conceive another child. Yet, where do you lay the blame when it comes to having a child – and can anyone really be at fault…

As Ben becomes increasingly distant, Fliss begins to question whether her desire for a baby is just a sticking plaster to save her marriage. Because in the end, how well can you ever know another person…even the man you're married to?
