Beyond Broken

Beyond Broken Kristin Vayden
He was searching for hope in a world that offered him everything. With his life spiraling out of control, he sought salvation at a rehab center, never expecting to find light after admitting all the darkness he carried. The last thing he needed was to fall in love. But sometimes we can't choose who we love--it chooses us. And that's what she did; she chose him, mind, body, and soul. And he was helpless in love's grasp. She knew his name spelled trouble, but was unable to distance her heart, until it was too late, until it already deep within his grasp. Sometimes, even when you want to help those you love, even when you have the best intentions--they have to love themselves enough to want to change. Nobody ever said love was easy, and for them? The battle has just begun. Beyond Broken is a NA romance with a very strong inspirational thread. However, it is still not considered a religious or inspirational romance because of the elemental theme of drug abuse, sex, and strong language
