Leadership Skills: Middle School Manual: Violence Prevention Project The Leadership Program
The Leadership Program's Violence Prevention Project (VPP) is approved by SAMSHA and OJJDP for schools, school districts, and community organizations when accompanied by facilitation training, administrator and facilitator program guides, and companion student workbooks. VPP nurtures appropriate social and emotional behaviors by providing youth with the leadership and conflict-resolution skills necessary for modern life. Our Leadership Skills Middle School Manual uses an approach that engages, informs, and empowers its teenage audience. The Violence Prevention Project Leadership Skills curriculum has been implemented in over 5,000 classrooms for over 150,000 students - and has earned distinction from the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention as the country's top program of its kind. The middle school manual includes 41 lessons, complete with step-by-step instructions that make facilitation easy and accessible, that will help your students get to the core of conflict and transform into leaders in your classroom and community.
