Solving Us Susan Renee
Twenty four year old Olivia is trapped in her own life, struggling to escape the painful scars of her past. Moving in with her best friend and old college roommate, Olivia seeks a life of independence, happiness, and love. Above all she desperately seeks a life not defined by her physical appearance. Finn's world collapses with one shattering phone call. Seven years later, though successful in the family business, he still struggles with guilt, depression, and an unwavering need to protect what’s important to him. A serendipitous encounter could quite possibly change both of their lives, but what happens when they find out that they both have broken souls and how will they react when the ugly pieces of each other are exposed?
