Assassin Nadene Seiters
Robert Trenton aka Troy Red aka Jack Evans is an ex-assassin, or some prefer the term hit man. He’s killed for all types of people, and he hasn’t thought twice about his profession until something cataclysmic happens. In his rage, he goes to the police in an attempt to find his sister and niece’s killer and promises to spill his entire life story, including the names of the people who have hired him. Robert Grant lets his farm be used as a safe house for criminals entered into the witness protection program. In most cases, his daughter stays away from his home while he’s harboring a witness, but this time she can’t seem to stay away. Cassidy’s growing interest in Troy may be short lived when she finds out just how far Troy is willing to go to keep the ones he loves safe. Is it possible for a man to change, and can the woman that loves him take him for the man he has become? Or will his past interfere with the future he so desperately craves?
