The Teen Commandments: Not Your Typical Parenting Lorri M. Reynolds
Lorri M. Reynolds takes her cue from God's first laws and creates her version of the "teen" commandments. If you are the parent of an adolescent child, age ten to nineteen years, this book is for you. These innovative yet practical guidelines provide fresh insights into handling curfews, poor school grades, traffic tickets, cell phones, household chores, and more without relying on constant yelling, empty threats, or long-winded lectures Quite simply, the author embraces good old-fashioned "ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS" logic, using God's "Top 10" moral standards as the format. Contrary to what you or your kids may have heard or believe, being a Christian is not so much the restriction of our human behavior as much as it is the conviction of our human spirit.
