An Uncontrollable Urge Claire Sparks
The London media scene, where high pitched PR executives are on a pointless crusade of never-ending hype and social network procrastination. But Sammy Hall has an uncontrollable urge to be somewhere else… When Sammy commits career suicide on Twitter, she begins to write a spoofy novel based on the disappearance of her Dad three days after she was born – an occurrence which sent her Mum to the door of the Catholic Church via a nervous breakdown. Sammy keeps telling herself that Bobby Ewing from Dallas is her Dad. As she gets closer to the truth, she finds herself as accidental life coach to the women of North West London. Will they help Sammy discover who she really is? Can she broker world peace without leaving the house? A fast paced narrative bursting with hilarious one-liners and brutally honest observations about the media, dysfunctional relationships and female friendships. The story unfolds through the infectious voice of Sammy Hall and her quick-witted conversations with closest friend, Eva. "A laugh-out-loud debut novel" - Now
