Daily Missal of the Mystical Body The Maryknoll Fathers and Charles J. Callan
The Daily Missal of the Mystical Body, prepared by the Maryknoll Fathers, like other daily missals deservedly well known and widely used, has as its general purpose the intelligent participation and following of the Sacrifice of the Mass. Its ultimate aim, however, is to instill into its users a vivid and enlightened sense of the Mystical Body. For each Mass, the feast, the liturgical class, and the color of the sacred vestments are indicated, and a brief explanation of the feast is given, with a short sketch of the life of the commemorated Saint. To each Reading and Gospel is added a short explanation, thus preparing the soul for reflection and contemplation. Those who use The Daily Missal of the Mystical Body will be grateful to its authors and editors. Each page reveals true competence, and the explanatory remarks become for the readers an appealing call to show themselves active and zealous members of the Mystical Body of Jesus the Redeemer. This special flexibound edition is published with a built-in white imitation leather zippered case.
