Modern Atheism, Belief/Knowledge Mutual Exclusivity Man Morrow
Despots and belief-system administrators have harnessed belief and have used it to create the world's most successful criminal enterprise ever. Modern Atheism will explore in detail the mechanisms of this ongoing criminality and the global scope of its hurtfulness. Readers will discover an array of new and revisited terms that will make an understanding of the statement, "There is no God," obvious. Among these terms is belief/knowledge mutual exclusivity. Boldly stated, belief/knowledge mutual exclusivity makes clear that nothing believed can ever be true, and that nothing true can ever be believed. Truths can be known through evidence. But beliefs do not produce evidence. Beliefs are untrue and are believed without evidence. This realization is indeed simple. But popular understanding of it is convoluted in the equivocations of popular speech. Modern Atheism will dissect this convolution and will fully explain its mechanisms and its motives.
