The Little Yellow Bus Story and Book of Learning Activities Christopher Devendorf
A unique three-part educational children's book. Part one is a story with hidden pictures about various vehicles traveling to a town on different days of the week. On each day of the story, children can learn about two different topics including time, money, shapes, weather, parts of the body, letters, numbers, colors, clothes, various foods, and word recognition. Part two of the book is made up of activities for children to try, and part three has little lessons that reinforce the educational topics that children read about in part one of the book.
